REASONS FOR DENYING THE WRIT

Petitioner's Application for Writ of Certiorari is a list of personal complaints not supported by the record, and all judicial decisions have been properly explained and supported in the written rulings.

The United States Supreme Court and the Iowa Supreme Court have both dealt with the issues now raised in the Petition and that activity can be summarized as follows:

UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT ACTIVITY:

Application for Stay A-789, March 25, 1999 – denied by Justice Thomas (attached)

IOWA SUPREME COURT ACTIVITY:

98-1389 – Appeal Dismissed

99-1564 – Petition for Certiorari Denied

99-1565 – Appeal Dismissed

00-0197 – Appeal Dismissed

00-1744 – Appeal Dismissed March 13, 2002

00-1935 – Appeal Dismissed August 2, 2002

The Petitioner repeatedly asserts fraud, lack of jurisdiction and unfair treatment by the Judicial System, all focused on repairs to an abandoned building which were recommended by the Iowa State Fire Marshall's Office. The Sioux County District Court ordered the City of Orange City, Iowa to install safety repairs on the building at a cost of nearly $50,000.00. The assessed value of the building at that time was less than $12,000.00. The parcel had been sold for delinquent taxes but was later redeemed by a relative of the Petitioner. The Petitioner resists all efforts by the City to recover its costs.

In an effort to delay implementation of the Court's Orders, the applicant unsuccessfully attempted to remove the State case to the Minnesota Federal District Court, applied for relief in the Minnesota Bankruptcy Court, applied for Stay in the United States Supreme Court, filed numerous Motions for Stay, Change of Venue, Intervention, Injunction, Mandamus, Removal of Judges, Investigation of Clerks, Removal of Opposing Counsel and other delay devices, resulting in repetitive litigation in Iowa and Minnesota, which occasioned the above noted Iowa Supreme Court Appeals and the United States Supreme Court Application for Stay of Proceedings.

CONCLUSION

The Respondent, City of Orange City, Iowa, believes that all meritorious issues were raised and addressed in prior cases and appeals and the Court should follow its earlier position and again deny the Petitioner's request for prolonging this fully adjudicated case. Respondent respectfully requests that this honorable Court deny the Petition.

Respectfully submitted,

KLAY, VELDHUIZEN, BINDNER,
DEJONG & JACOBSMA, P.L.C.
